NEW SERIES .--- VOL. 1, NO. 4.

RAVENNA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1854.

Poetry.

(From the Kulckerbocker. SONG OF LABOR-THE MINER.

The bastern sky is blushing red, The distant hill-top glowing; The brook is murmuring in its bed, fn idle fgolies flowing; Tis time the pick-axe and the spade And Iron "Tom" were ringing; And with ourselves, the monutain's stre And song of labor singing. The mountain air is cool and fresh;

Broad placers, rich in hidden gold, Lie tomptingty before us; Than lightly ply the pick and spade, With alsows strong and Insty; A golden "pill" is quickly made, Wherever claims are "dusty." n We ask no mugle Mides wand.

Not wigard-rod divinings

The pick-axe, spaile, and brawny hand Are soreerezs in mining; We toil for hard and yellow gold, No bogus bank notes taking; The bank, we trust, though growing old, Will better pay by breaking. There is no munifer life than ours, Where from the hill-sides rich in gold, Are welling sparkting fountains: A mighty army of the hills, Like some strong giant labors To gather spoil by honest toil, And not by robbing neighbors.

When labor closes with the day, To simple fare returning, We gather in a merry group Around the camp-fires burning; The mountain is our couch at night, The stars shine bright above us; We think of home and fall asleep, To dream of those who love us Feather River, California.

How Beautiful is Childhood.

How beautiful is childhood!-How innocent its glect How clear its merry laugh, that speaks The heart from sorrow freel 'Ts like a pleasant morning, When the air is filled with song; Or, like a summer stream that glides

How beautiful is childhood!-How trustful-how content! Its memory has no blotted page-No fallier to Tament. 'Tis like a simple flower that grows All blooming, fair and bright; Or like a cheering star that glows, Upon the tobe of night.

An Amusing Storn.

Tribulation of a Bashful Man;

MY FIRST APPEARANCE IN SOCIETY.

HE BY PALCONBUIDGE. How "early impressions" and reminiscences of youthful days hang to us. How easy, clear and distinctly we can see our I go with?" first dickey, first boots we wore, or books we read, while thousands of sublunary invited you?" things coming in at a much later date are almost obsolete in our memories would not dim the recollection," said Frank

I was old enough to be better educated in booby I a-" the ways of the world, but it was my weak- I heard no more: for I cleared out to reyankee friends say. But by and by I left ed the bell with a most nervous twitch. I individual, in coat and pantaloons, and about parlor sat not only Miss Jones but her two to find that time-even the brief period of table and it fell off, I picked it up, and in five years-had worked wonders. Susan, doing so hit my nose against a pile of gilt Jane, Ann, Mary, Polly, Betsey, &c., had edged literature and down it came pell mell, hosome Miss Jones. Miss Smith, Miss this but the children came to my rescue and I and Miss that, ergo, they were young wo- finally found myself armed by a lady on each men and setting their caps for beaux. It was side-the cousins! imagine my feelingssoon known that I had got home. Some Miss J., going in advance en route, down the new accessions to the population had been avenue to the portly residence of the Miss families, had some four or five highly finish- cousins and Miss J., doing a heap of convered daughters each. Well, we saw them, sation. In the hall, the old negro servant they saw us; for the first four or five days, made a grab at my hat, but I held on and in we kept shady, ogling the girls-beg par- triumph carried it into the parlor, where in don-young ladies, at a distance; dodging the midst of introductions, flaring of lamps them if they were likely to get too close, and waving and fluttering of silks and casiand making ourself mighty scarce if any of meres bowing and scraping, fuse and feaththem made their appearance about our dom- ers, to all of which I was more or less deaf

"Frank," said my sister-in-law for I nev- ner I socks my hat. er was blessed with a sister, or perhaps I The two cousins froze to me, introduced wife says to me, "Frank, why don't you in the tip of fashion made her perfectly commerce, or, perhaps, in population. "N-n-no." I hesitatingly replied.

"They wont bite you!" "Don't suppose they will," said I.

and Miss Jones, and the two Miss Degrands whist I was ignorant and awkward, in a hop come over again, let me-ah! here comes waltz with one of the cousins, I tread her Miss Jones now Frank-"

"Good morning, Lizzie, glad to see y a, my hat. In confusion I arose snatched up sum, not yet due, and offers its creditors a hoped he may survive the shock. whispering to me, who stood trembling like the pancake looking affair which I frenzied large premium for the privilege of paying a leaf, "stand still you goose." Miss Jones, held up to the vulgar gaze. There was a them now. to me soto voice, "open your mouth.!" Al- roar of laughter-in which I did not join I low me to introduce you to my brother, Mr. assure you; I gave a rush forward, hit the celling Old Europe! Europe is still cursed Fox, Mr. Fox, Miss Jones, to me, "hold up table, tilted over the ostral lamp!-such a with the "divine right" of some fifty-four near choking in my life. Thanks to my glasses. I struck the old gentlemen so sister-in-law, if she got me into the ice, she forcibly that he fell back upon pompey, got me out again for her tongue ran a pit down went pompey, glasses and wine, and pat clitter clatter, as a married woman's on my med career I proceeded. Going out tongue will run you know. So getting the wrong end of the hall I found myself in breath and with my breath confidence, I a dark dining-room, but jerking open the burst out all of a sudden-"How do you do first door in advance, I went out into a hall sat silent as a Mandarian, this sudden less. ha! ha! ha! ha'd right out; Miss Jones blush- knows! but for one week Ihad a head too big ing like a carnation or a scarlet delilah, in a for a hat and a pair of black eyes. As soon fine silvery voice said-

"Quite well Mr. Fox thank you." "Tha-thank you," I involuntarily echo-

"Ha! hat hat roared my sister-in-law. "Charlotte!" says I, in a voice of such absolete firmness that it quite checked her Cachintory ejaculations. I had arose from my seat to make this determined effort of elocution. I raised my hand to give it force and fruitlessly waved it once or twice more, to give the grand flourish to the rest of my remarks but .- I was done, could not get off another word, and so with a a hurried motion, I snatched up my hat and bolted out of and productive farming land within the do-

God knows how my sister-in-law straightened things with Miss Jones, but I felt so ashamed of stupidity, the next day in revenge United States is bot 25,000,000; only 21,upon myself, I not only went smack bang 000.000 of whom are whites. The United over to Miss Jones' to make an apology for States, then, can support and subsist a pop- with a few exceptions, frequently buy what is to submit certain facts in relation to the my rudeness, but during my stay there—the ulation of the nearly as large as that of they do not want; while those less favored six following particulars: alarming space of two minutes; accepted an Europe at the present time; and will doubt-incessantly violate this golden rule. The invitation to attend a whist party at the resi- less yet contain such a population. It will dence of the Miss Degrands, the next even- be long ere the elements of growth in this home, after such a display of cool courage can scarce conceive the vast achievements should have it, and spends on it a sum that facts are significant; and self possession, and upon my sister-inof the American people when the whole he often needs for more necessary purposes

1. That while a large audience welcomed obtained for other purposes are used to sus-

into Squire Jones'!" "Well, of course you did," say I as bold as have in operation 20,000 miles of railroads; two sheep!

is the matter?"

"Lotty," says I, twitching up my shirt collar and viewing my frizzled head in the parlor glass, "Lotty I'm going to a party." "You are!" said she.

"Pray where, Frank, at Miss Jones?"

"No. At the Miss Degrand's." suys I "La! Frank!"

going with! Lizzie." "No, by myself, of course. What should

"Why Miss Jones, you booby, has'at she

"N-no," I hesitatingly replied. "She

"I remember--faith an hundred years would, but she didn't ask me to go with her."

ness to be rather bashful, I was big enough to flect upon the now apparent fix I was gettake care of myself, but I was so timid and un- ting my father's son into. From that time sophisticated and hence my difficulties. We to the hour of six P. M., next day, I was in lived in a small neighborhood, but abundant- a twitter of excitement- Urged by my sisly supplied with live people, and any quan- ter-in-law, "fixed up" to the nines; such a tity of good looking girls. While I was in "dandy jack" as I appeared, never illuminatalong to gether slick as a whistle, as our All ready, off I goes, to Miss Jones. I pullhome to return a double-fisted bullet-headed walked in with fear and misgivings, in the four to eight sprouts of a sickly sort of a cousins, the old lady a maiden aunt and some moustache ornamenting my upper lip. four or five of the junior branches of the The little gals I left behind me, had not Jones' family. I got through, though it was been neglected by nature or art; I returned fearful work. I sat my hat on the center

"Then don't be stupid, when Miss Smith from one bungle I got into another. In a colleges. We have 3,800 churches, and blind, down on a piano stool in the cor-

Miss Jones?" As my sister-in-law and Miss thence to an anti-room, groping in the dark Jones had been talking right straight along I struck my head against a half open kitchwithout any reference to me at all who had en door saw bushels of stars and-fell sensespasm quite startled them; my sister-in-law How or when I got home the Lord only

Miscellaneons.

United States and Europe.

The thirty-one States, nine Territories, and district of Columbia, which compose the United States, contain an area of 3,306,865 square miles that is equal to nine-tenths of the area of the whole continent of Europe. There is nine-tenths the quantity of good main of the United States, as in all Europe.

Yet while the population of Europe is over $200,000,000, the population of the about as much as all Europe. They have "You are mightily tickled, Frank, what been built at a cost of $300,000,000; and one of them is the longest railroad in the world. The European railroads have cost more, and are perhaps more thoroughly constructed. We have also over 5000 miles of canals; more, we believe, than all Europe. The length of ten of our principal rivers is 20,000 miles; and the surface of the five "Hurra! for you Frank. Good!" cried lattitudes than any portion of the United delphia Ledger. territory of Europe lie in higher northern Lotty, "and" she continued, "who are you States, and is consequently less productive, hundred million dollars. The product of Are wealth and position an equivalent to surplus worth nearly a hundred and fifty away. is demanded for its own supply.

and railroad making will doubtless continue Merchant's Magazine. until the whole wide domain of the republic, from the frozen north to the tropics, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is spanned and chequered, and bound together by iron rails, and enlivened by the tramp of the iron horse. The republic has a future before it hopes. Its moral will equal its material

Although law and order prevail, there is ces of Miss Degrand's dress and tore off one are filled with political offenders. The

Why is it that Young America is thus excrash!-I kept on, I made for the door families to rule all the millions of its peowhich just then old Degrand was entering ple. In the United States is established the truly divine right of the average prejudice of mankind."—

The dead and speak!"

The dead

Buy only what you Want.

To buy nothing you do not want is a maxim as old almost as society itself. But it as able to travel I left that "Settlement" slight check on this tendency to useless ex. to galvanize prostrate corporations by syspenditure. But credit is so easily obtained tematic puffing. to cripple their future comforts by indulging in present follies. Half of the men wishes of ninety-nine one hundredths of these beggared, to early extravagance.

> ed this would not be. We are far from recommending a niggardly parsimony; for a distance. preacher, lawyer, physician, attracted by the cost when coveting a famous trotter .- to hear Douglus. all learn, sooner or later, to regret what been for fourteen years before. ing what they really did not want .- Phila- but two.

our inland, coasting and foreign commerce, will have lost the capacity to enjoy. He is greater than that of England; and greater finds himself at the end of his labors a class. than that of all Europe combined, exclusive guest at his own feast, without an appetite of England. We have nearly 13,000 miles for its dainties. The wine of life is wasted, of sea coast, exclusive of the shores of and nothing remains but the less. The "Oh! you goose!" laughingly exclaimed tide water rivers. The registered tounage warm sympathies of his heart have been Fox,-my first "grand dash" into "society." Lotty, "why Frank, you are the greatest of the United States is 4,406,010 tons. The choked by his inexorable spirit of avarice, amount of products of American industry, and they cannot be resuscitated. The founwhen compared with the population is truly tain-head of his enthusiasm is sealed; he wonderful. The value of the agricultural looks at all things in nature and in art with products of the United States for the year an eye of calculation; hard matter of fact ty-five thousand dollars.) of which all but conciliate confidence? 1853, was over two thousand million dol- is the only pabulum his mind can feed on; about $27,000 (twenty-seven thousand) was:

2. As illustrative of the spirit of the two jack and trowsers, we gals and boys got ed that region before or since I ll engage. the mines is very large; that of gold alone these losses? Is not the millionaire, who is nearly one hundred million dollars annu- has acquired wealth at such a cost, a miserable bankrupt! In our opinion, there is lit-If such is the product, such the wealth, the to choose on the score of wisdom be-fixed capital, (buildings, etc..) may be divithe commerce, and the public improvements tween the individual who recklessly squanof the United States when the population is ders his money as he goes along in folly, namely, the Permanent Fund, (consisting down by the President and his friends. 25,000,000 who can compute the wealth and and the false economist who denies himself power of the nation when its population shall the wholesome enjoyments of life, in order amount of $85,000, (eighty-five thousand.) be comprehended. equal that of Europe? While, with our pre- to swell the treasure which, in the harden- and given upon condition that the principal Consider, in addition, sent people, enough agricultural products ing process of scraping up he had been should never be expended nor liable for the are produced for home consumption, and a too mean to spend, and too selfish to give debts of the College) and the General Fund, million dollars for sale abroad, Europe with The only rational way to live is to mix nine times the population, produce less than labor with enjoyment-a streak of fat and a streak of lean. There is nothing like a The surface of American coal fields, al- streaky life; a pleasant mixture of exertion, $10,000 (ten thousand. made, in way of two aristocratically inclined Degrands. We entered the vestibule: I had ready been discovered, exceeds 133,000 thankfulness, love, jollity, and repose. The families from the city of—; and these not spoken a word all the way, the pretty square miles; and the lead, iron, copper and man, who slaves for riches, makes a poor reother mines are apparently inexhaustable .- turn to that God who took the trouble of Over 50,000 railroads are already chartered, making him for a better purpose.—Hunt's years, of over $18,000, (eighteen thousand?) against of Pres. Pierce, not even when aid-of the Franconia (N. H.) Flame House, is the deficit has increased over $2000 (two friends of the College have taken the avow- wives by making bruits of their husbands; a carelessly dressed, tall, sandy hairied old thousand) during the past year; and this edposition: "We cannot encourage students and stripping them of their property-Blast man who bears the title the "Old Man of while the theological department has been to go to a College thus officered and thus presi- the hopes of children, who are compelled of vast promise, and of bright and boundless the Mountains." Being of a reflective turn suspended and no salary has been paid in ded over." And this position has been taof mind, and living apart from the learning that department. should not have been so backward in coming forward, you see' Well, my brother's came forward, I was introduced, and as she combined will not surpass it in wealth and which are well worth listening to. He be- consists of unpaid subscription notes, the It remains to consider back up to the girls, they come over to see grand theatrical bow to me, I grabbed her lieves as other learned men have believed greater part of which are long past due. VI. THE PROBABILITIES OF AN ADJUSTMENT. piness in another world! Aye Blast is the you. Treatly believe, and whenever they ap. by the hand and in the most democratic the people can read and write. In the Uni- before him, that the world is a hollow Upon the principal of this large amount. 1. Consider the refusal of an arbitration world. pear, away you shoot, as if mad dogs was af- manner, imaginable shook it most heartily. ted States there is only one in twenty-two sphere, with a world of continents, oceans (upon which there is due some seven thon- already referred to. ter you! you are not afraid of them are you!" She not only blushed but by her eyes I saw who cannot read and write. There are five and streams on its inner surface. The outer sand dollars o' unpaid interest,) the faithful 2. Consider that Pres. Pierce has been she was likewise mad as a hornet. Her times as many newspapers published in the and inner worlds are connected by two tunsister and her had a word and then the sister United States as in all Europe. We have nels at the poles, and in his opinion Sir John wous exertions of the President, have availed sign: (1) By the theological alumni; (2) By the entire concern, with all the fixavoided me. Things grew no better fast, 81,000 schools, 6000 academies, and 234 Franklin and Dr. Kane have both entered to collect during the year ending July 1st, six trustees in a communication over their erable on or after the 1st of November next, these tundels and will never return home. 1854, less than $900, (nine hundred,) all told! own signatures; (3) By a public meeting of for one half its actual cost. The first cost The old man even inclines to the belief that And it is notorious that hundreds who never the influential donors; and (4) By the West- is understood to have been about $700,000. Although law and order prevail, there is The old man even inclines to the benefithat Although law and order prevail, there is The old man even inclines to the benefithat the continuous that the earth is an animated substance, described their business paper to be protested, ern Reserve Synod, of which he is a memtoes until she screamed, and in trying to man imprisoned for a political offence .- pendent for its existence upon respiration and who would pay cheerfully if the College ber. "A-a Lotty, Lotty don't," I nervovsly mend the matter I stepped upon the flour- German, Italian, Spanish and French pris- through its caverns and outgushing streams, were as it was when they subscribed, con- 3. Consider that, notwithstanding all this.

Till introduce you, don't be stupid, stand five yards at least. In despair I backed European governments are in debt beyond moved to Philadelphia or Boston, and put down, saw a seat, back upon it, my head all possible means of payment in all time to cently overtaken by a "train of thought."— is controlled by those in whose hands it has Africa, and the angels of God, ask me to resign, up, for less than $75,000. Goods and ma-"I'm hanged if I a -" but it was too late. dizzy, I sushed and down I sat squash upon come. Our government owes but a triffing Through skillful medical treatment it is sank to its present degredation. At the rate I will not no it?"

It was as follows: "Gentlemen if you believe all the testimony in the case, your verdict should be for the plaintiff."

Western Reserve College.

Published by request. MESSES. EDITORS:-The Independent of which cannot, therefore, be brought for- recent commencement of the Western Re- thousand nine hundred!) ward again too frequently. Spending mon- serve College, and representing the pros- 7. Over$2700(two thousand seven hundred) outraged and insulted donors, alumni, and ey, in fact, is a vice common to human na- pects of the College as "quite encouraging." of the sacred Permanent Fund has been loaned true friends of the College, will not cease to being a miser, ten are in constant peril of evidently designed to convey the impression ruining themselves by extravagance. It is that the College is in a condition which 8. The College grounds, buildings, appaso fine to have elegant furniture, to live in a should inspire its friends with confidence and ratus, etc., have long been under heavy morthandsome house or to dress one's wife and hope. Were this the truth, no man would gages: and threats of prosecution for debt children in rich apparel, that it requires an rejoice in it more heartily than the writer .unsual degree of firmness, especially in this But to those who know the actual condition prosperous age, to resist the temptation. If of this institution, the policy of these reprein this country, and buyers are so sanguine in If the columns of influential papers are to being ready when settling day comes, that be opened to this last desperate expedient of thousands of families are induced annually the oligarchy by whom this institution is now controlled, in the defiance of the known who reach old age impoverished, and per. by whom the College has been sustained, haps a greater number owe their dependent and without whose co-operation it never can condition, at that sadest of all times to be be sustained, it is certainly just that they also to know certain facts concerning. should also be open to an exposure of this at-If we were all to buy only what we want- tempt to manufacture a false opinion, and delude the friends of the college who reside at Long, D. D., (now Professar in Dartmouth one of the purposes of wealth is that it It is no part of my purpose to give a hisshould be distributed in encouraging trade tory of the difficulties by which this institu- lett, (now Pastor at Manchester, N. H.;) First. Facts relating to

I. THE COMMENCEMENT.

ing. I felt bold as a sheep! as I marched over country are exhausted. The imagination self that his profession requires that he at the recent commencement, the following elsewhere to endow professors in this de-law meeting me in the vestibule, and saying, country is settled and all its resources devel he often needs for more necessary purposes before the year is over. The wife, charmed Mr. Douglass on Wednesday, an audience tain a President, and three Professors and a by a new style of dress, lavishes away her one-third smaller attended the exercises of butor, while instructing 23 students in the money, is delighted for awhile, but lives to the graduating class and the inquoural of collegiate department. repent it, if she is a woman of sense. The Prof. Hosford, on Thursday. At all previ- 3. One of the two new professors was father, proud of his daughter, thinks no ex- ous commencements, the attendance upon elected by the casting vote of the President pense too great to gratify her whims. The the second day has been three or four times as and accepted his appointment in the teeth of young man, fond of horses, does not count large as upon the first. The wulltitude came the formal recorded protest of one half the > rounded with mirrors, pictures and fine fur. ly commencement day) there was a smaller of those who elected the former, and also You do. You pop into a parlor, perhaps, niture generally, squander money dispropor- attendance of alumns, ministers, and the well accepted his appointment against the pro- There sit in the twilight and bliss, loungtionately on such costly gew-gaws. Yet known friends of the College, than there has test of the minority; and both were elected ing on a sofa, a loving couple, Of course, thousands have discovered before, after buy- class during the year, and most of the time, can colleges.)

and less capable of sustaining a dense popu- SLAVERY FOR MONEY.—We pity the man year at an expense of nearly $4000) has tees, likely to rally to the support of profes-

selves for admission into the Freshman ing

Consider, II. ITS FINANCIAL CONDITION.

Between Jan. 1, 1845, and Jan. 1, 1850, lege. there was subscribed to the funds of the col-

appear from the following statements: originally of subscription-notes to the This fact is significant, and will not fail to (consisting of all other assets.)

Notice the following facts:

'Encouraging!"

THE OLD MAN OF THE MOUNTAIN .- A cor- 3. July 1st, 1853, the difference between to assume high position. respondent of the New York Commercial these assets and liabiliti s was about $6000, 2. Hundreds who have been long known trust their sons will prove their pride and Advertiser, says that one of the attractions (six thousand;) from which it appears that as among the carnest and self-sacrificing solace in old age-Blast the happiness of of $900 a year, when will this collection be completed!

only be met by the uncollected interest on lies beyond the official grave of the reigning of notes which the subscribers refuse to pay.— igarchy; and because such representations as Were the theological department in opera- those of your correspondent only help to prois also one continual slipping of mind, and July 27, contains two articles glorifying the tion the deficit would be about $3900, (three Flong the reign of this oligarchy, and thus re-ture. Where one man degrades himself by The article signed "Western Reserve" is to this bankrupt General Fund. Is this labor and pray. Christian fidelity, or Schuyler financiering?

are now hanging over the College. 9. The Treasurer appointed by the reigning oligarchy, finding that the public will not everybody was compelled to pay cash for sentations, or, rather misrepresentations, is pay their subscriptions to a board of trussuch gratifications, there would be some transparent. It is no new thing to attempt tees controlled by such a majority, has tendered his resignation.

10 This bankrupt institution is, by own pledges, forbidden to seek additional aid from the east; and to obtain any considerable amount from the people of the Reserve, so long as the College is under its present head, is a well known impossibility. Do these facts look "encouraging!"

But the distant friends of the college ought III. THE BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

1. Within a short period, Rev. Clement College;) Rev. E. P. Barrows, (now Professor in Andover Seminary.) Rev. S. C. Bartoligarchy, and resigned, to the great grief of almost the entire community.

2. The theological department is not As to the interest in the College, evinced operation; and funds given in Brooklyn and University, when the primitive pine forest covered densely the spot where the college buildings now stand, and when he and his class mates rolled the logs and burned the college department (sustained during the resigning professors and the protesting trus- set down to tea takes place. A favorite sors thus thrust upon them!

been appointed others possessing far less come one. So on and so forth, of the confidence of the friends of the College, over $125,000, (one hundred and twen- which evidently governed these, likely to yond its income, that is, the income actually who represented the sentiments of the vast received in cash. This and other facts will majority of the friends of the College propo-The assets of the college, aside from its matters in dispute should be referred to a

V. PUBLIC SENTIMENT.

1. July 1st, 1850, the General fund cx- an overwhelming majority of the donors, who us.—Burton. ceeded the liabilities of the College about are so situated as to know the facts-namely those who reside in Ohio, (three classes 2. July 1st, 1854, the General Fund was without whose confidence no college can establishment in this city, one of our cotemliabilities: showing a falling off, in four lege can never be resuccitated under the man- Aye, Blast is the word! Blast the chared by his two new professors, so reluctant ment tempts them to indulge in strong drink ken in no spirit of faction, but reluctantly incarcerated in jail with felons, and those onsider themselves under no moral obligation Pres. Pierce has publicly said, "If all the for $50,000 or less, or be taken down, re-

Other facts might be submitted, but these and the reliable income, that is, the income this institution with pride, and hope, and who there are 3,294 school dist upon that portion of the fund now collected now grieve bitterly over its deplorable con- in which are 87,825 pupils. The am tard the dawn of that future, for which the

WHOLE NUMBER 478

JUSTICE. Interesting Incident.

The Burlington Free Press gives the following account of an interesting incident atthe Alumni dinner. The fourth regular

"The firt Graduating Class of fifty years

CHARLES ADAMS, Esq., of Burlington, arose: "There were four of us." save he "who graduated firty years ago." He stopped a moment, two white haired men rose beside him, and the three (the survivors of the Class of 1804) stood in silence. The effect was electric. Wonder, that of a college class of half a century ago, three-fourths should vet survive, and be able to meet at such a time, and thoughts of the emotions with which they looked upon each other and their numerous successors in the path on which they were the pioneers, filled the minds of all present, and after a moments silence broke forth in deafening applause .-Charles Adams, Wheeler Barns, Justus P. Wheeler and Jarius Kennan, formed the class. Of the last, who died many years ago, Mr. Adams gave a brief sketch. He was, he said, a man of uncommon talent .-Beyond a doubt he was the co-author with Irving and Paulding, of "Salmagundi," and had he lived would have attained an elevated fame. He went on to give interesting reminscences of Mr Saunders, their old and sole instructor, and of the first days of the NEVER HOPE YOU DON'T INTRUDE .- Reapermanent members of the board of trustees; der a word-serious, sober, heart-full word. The fashionable couple, who like to be sur. 2. Upon the second day (which is proper- and the other received no votes but the votes This is it: Never think you don,t intrude .-without the recommendation of the faculty you hope you don't intrude. But you do, his uppermost hair. You hope you don't in-Are the Alumni of the College, and its trude. You do, and most confoundedly .friends generally,, who sympathize with the You Lappen into a neighbor's just as the for a special socialty. You do intrude. Put 5. Only four candidates presented them- Add to the foregoing certain facts concern- it down as a certainty that you do. Call upon a lady while the household duties claim her attention, and every moment is a golden one. 1. Within a year, two of the twelve trus- Just hope you don t intrude, but don't think tees (Rev. Dr. Aiken and Rev. J. Seward) you don't, for you do-any part or parcel of have resigned, and in the place of them have yourself is an intrusion, and a most unwel-

stumps where the first clearing on the ground

PREPARATION FOR DEATH.-When you lie down at night, compose your spirits as if you were not to wake till the heavens be no more. And when you awake in the morning, consider that new day as your last, and lars; and value of the products of all other the elastic spring of impulse is broken; the subscribed upon the Western Reserve. And sides, it ought to be known that prior to the eth, of which you will never see the mornyet this College is to-day living largely beer see the night; but which of your mornsed and urged an arrangement by which all Let the mantle of worldly enjoyments hang ings or nights will be such, you know not. loose about you, that it may be easily dropped when death comes to carry you into another world. When the corn is foreaking the ground, it is ready for the sickle: when the fruit is ripe, it falls off the tree easily. So when a Christian's heart is truly weaned from the world, he is prepared 1. It is a well-attested fact, that ninefor death, and it will be the more easy for tenths of the Presbyterian and Congregatis a heavenly one, and then we are ready tional ministers of the Western Reserve, and for heaven, when our heart is there before

> IN FULL BLAST,-Speaking of a liquor. -Riast the hopes of parents who fondly society-and Blast the victims' hope of hap> decided that the Palace can be taken down; removed to the Battery, and put up again, chinery are said to be coming into the Palace in considerable quantities, much improvfor the year ending July 1st, 1855, amount versy which the Independent has not. He is NEW HAMPSHIRE SCHOOLS .- The Board to about $4500 (four thousand five hundred.) one of the multitude, who once looked upon of Education of New Hampshire report that